Christmas comes early on Green

EDMONTON residents got into the spirit of Christmas a few weeks early, with a festive afternoon last Friday.

Gospel singers and a brass band entertained commuters, shoppers and workers in the Edmonton Green shopping complex, before Enfield mayor Lee Chamberlain turned on the giant Christmas tree lights.

The Edmonton Green Phoenix

basketball team joined in the celebrations that included singing from the Trinity at Bowes Youth Gospel Choir and music by the Balkanatics brass band.

Brendan Webb, of St Modwen, which manages the complex, said: "That was truly an afternoon not to be missed.

"It was wonderful to see so many members of the community at the event enjoying themselves."
